

Illegal Signs

The right-of-way varies throughout the city of Glasgow. As a general rule, it includes streets, curbs, medians, traffic lights, utility poles, and unimproved shoulders of the streets up to private property and generally three feet beyond sidewalks. Placing signs in these areas is illegal. Posting your signs isn't just illegal, it's unsightly and can be dangerous to the public.

Grass and Brush Disposal

It is against City ordinance to throw grass, weeds, leaves, brush, rocks, or trash on roadways, sidewalks or in drainage ways. This causes clogged drains and can cause roads to be slick and dangerous.

Address numbers

When life threatening and emergency situations occur police, fire, and EMS need to locate properties as quickly as possible. In order for them to reach you, it is critical that you have a correct and visible address. Numbers should be in a contrasting color from the mounting surface and visible to vehicles traveling in either direction on the fronting road.

The code enforcement process is generally initiated by a concerned resident reporting a possible violation. Most cases are resolved by the property owner/ responsible party responding to formal notification of the violations.

When voluntary compliance is not obtained however, the city will pursue civil citations, criminal charges or contractual abatement until the violations have been resolved.
